

Queen Elizabeth II. Dr. Glyn Owen served as the Queens pastor for a period.

1

Queen Elizabeth's memorial service on September 19th. Praise God indeed for a strong, clear witness in song, Scripture and testimony to the truth of the Gospel. The Lord Jesus was lifted up throughout. Pray for King Charles to follow his mother's example. Let's pray that many among the millions, of all faiths and no faith, around the world who watched the ceremony will be drawn to explore the claims of Christ.

SUNDAY

Luke & Yuko Elliot, Aomori Christian Center, Japan. "Please pray for 1) Luke & Yuko as they connect with and speak at churches and prayer meetings while on home assignment, 2) for the children as they adjust to new schools (2 in the Philippines, 3 in Toronto), and 3) for the Lord's protection over the Aomori Christian Center which will be closed over the winter during the Elliots' absence."

Ann Chow, Event & Project

Management. "#HACK2022 is a go! This is the world's largest Christian hackathon, with 88 champions from 76 cities and 35 countries...building] digital/tech solutions to address issues we face, to be a blessing to our churches, cities, countries, and the world. Please pray as we collaborate across geographic lines in-person and virtually. hack.indigitous.org" Anne will be in Bangkok in mid-Oct. as registrar for the 750-person Asian Lausanne Movement regional gathering. Please pray for planning and safety.

Sylvan Payne, Japan. "I'd like prayer as I start my final semester of full-time teaching. Pray that I can finish well and have opportunities to share my faith with students and colleagues in a meaningful way. Pray that my Parkinson's symptoms don't get in the way and that I can overcome."

5

Jack & Mary Anne Voelkel. "Jack and Mary Anne covet your prayers from October 7-10 as they facilitate four days of prayer for the students, faculty, and administrative staff of the Biblical Seminary in Medellin, Colombia. Pray for the visitation of the Holy Spirit and for God's direction and protection as we worship Him, place our lives at His feet, and seek His Face together. Please pray Isaiah 44:1-8."

6

Laurie Armstrong, Power to Change.

"Pray that incoming Christian students would be finding strong community in campus/church, where they can flourish and grow. That non-Christians would meet and be loved well by Christian students and would encounter Jesus. That I would love and serve my int'l friends well, in a way that helps them encounter Jesus.”

7

Hanneke Cost Budde, Tanzania. Please pray for safe travels and a good visit with family in Holland. They have many challenges but do not have the Lord in their lives. Pray I will be a good witness. Praise that most of the kids are doing well, are maturing, and follow Jesus! “Baraka is doing his final exams for Secondary school beginning of October. Pray for Jacky who still struggles with 'depressions' She is often down and goes to bed after school.”

8

Elizabeth Matthias, MTW, Germany. “Back from Canada and landing in the middle of Oktoberfest helps with the transition! Refreshed by our partnership in ministry I begin mentoring new lay counsellors the middle of this month and begin teaching the Discovering Change course on the 28th, besides catching up with many counselees. May the Lord grant wisdom, love, strength, and endurance!”

SUNDAY

Leah Hopp, OPC, Uganda. “I fly back to Uganda on October 12th. The week before furlough and the week just after furlough tend to be the most difficult for me as I process being physically in one place and sometimes mentally in another. I want to be fully present as I reconnect with my community health team.”

10

Thanksgiving Day. We rejoice in being able to lift up our workers and their ministries around the world (Uganda, Japan, Tanzania, Germany, Canada....) Praise God for a harvest of much greater value than pumpkins and pray for His supply of resources and more workers!

11

Khevna & Sharon, Knox Missions Hub. “Praise God for many new faces and relationships with students through frosh events, Friday Morning Prayer, Luke 10:2 Gatherings, and Missions Disciplers. Please pray for wisdom and stamina to continue all these things well, and for good times ahead to plan and make space for Faith, Work and Missions conversations this fall.”

12

Dave & Rani, Brampton. Dave will be in Guyana (Oct. 13-Nov. 27). He will be having live cross-cultural TV programs for outreach to Hindus. He will meet with pastors and others regarding evangelism. They continue to meet new international students in Brampton and invite them to our home.

13

Gord & Brenda Nickerson, Josiah Venture, Fort Worth, Texas. “Brenda and I will be doing some ministry travel in October. We'll be attending Sonlife Disciple Making ministry staff meetings in Florida. Pray that this will be a good time of connection and planning as we seek together how best to serve youth pastors throughout North America.”

14

Bill Fitch, Listen to Learn, East Africa. “We have a team currently in Tanzania, doing Reloads in our active LBI's there and strategizing re: our continuing management questions there. Lots of km to travel. Pray for safety on the roads and wisdom in discussions.”

15

Gus & Marliese, London. “I was approached by a Metis lady with her two grown children and asked to discuss J. W. teaching. Marliese and I met with them recently and the discussion went well. I asked what they would like to discuss next. The reply was “blood.” This has to do with the J. W. prohibition of having blood transfusion. Pray for us as we meet with them again.”

SUNDAY

Marg Roth. Marg praises God for a grandson with some life challenges who is finishing high school and needed approval of a co-op placement leading to an apprenticeship. “You have no idea what a great answer this is.” A 38-year-old nephew passed away recently, leaving a little daughter, 3 or 4 years old. She asks for prayers for the family, for their comforting and a turning or returning to the Lord

17

I & S. Perspectivas, Brasil. “Thank God for a very informative vision trip to Mideast! We are prayerfully hoping to decide by the end of the month; thank you for praying with us!” Please also pray for the Knox homes hosting team ministry workers, learning English in Jan/Feb 2023. They are still looking for 3 more homes. “English will make our teammates better equipped to connect internationally!”

18

Wayne & Helen Hancock, Threefold Ministries, Nicaragua. They give thanks to God for so many lives being touched by the gospel of Jesus at the Skylark Center as so many children, youth and adults have come for various events to deepen or awaken their faith. They are thankful too for faithful partners supporting this ministry in prayer and with financial gifts. Pray for new partners, and for Tammy as she works tirelessly to steward the resources that God has entrusted to them.

19

Colin & Rachel McCordic, AIM. “James 1:5 says, 'If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously' and this is our prayer!” Colin has had good meetings with mission leaders and local pastors to learn about what mission initiatives exist in Chad. Pray for wisdom to know who to meet and how to network. Pray for Rachel, teaching a small Grade 4/5 class and often individualizing content to meet the needs of each student.

20

Chyrl Basa, FFM. “Registration for the upcoming Global Day of Prayer on Nov. 12, 2022, from 8am to 2pm EST is now open. Please be in prayer for all our sharers and guest speaker as well as those who will be attending the event. We are excited to share with you how God is powerfully moving across the Muslim world, but more than ever, our prayers and participation are needed! (Register at www.ffmna.org)”

21

Paul & Mary Beth McLean, PCC, Taiwan. “May God help the Maolin, Tona and Wanshan teams (three smaller dialects of Ngudradrekai) finalize their translations of Mark's Gospel, so they can be typeset together. May God open safe doors for Paul to visit all his teams in-person in November.”

22

Sylvia Dresser. “Things moved quickly. Buildings were erected and personnel to staff a medical clinic and school arrived in Saman. Praise God for this and pray for these young folk from other islands as they adjust to life in the southern swamps of Papua.”

SUNDAY

C & K. C will be travelling to an apple orchard business (Kazakhstan), construction and wastewater management companies (Pakistan), and a geo-tourism business (Indonesia). Pray for wisdom, strength, and safety, and to be a great encouragement in the midst of huge challenges. One company in Asia reported that 13 employees have come to the Lord, praise Him! Much of Pakistan was under water recently—pray for God's mercy and good responses from government leadership.

Susan Jeffery, CANIL, Abbotsford.

“CanIL’s Language and Culture Acquisition (LACA) teacher (my September house-guest) is mentoring a possible successor this term. Pray for mentee and mentor as they work closely together. Also pray for good health for staff and students. There is a bug circulating that is interfering with students being able to attend their classes uninterrupted. Full attendance is especially vital for those taking LACA’s Farsi language learning sessions.”

25

Carluci & Christina Dos Santos, LAM.

Since September 1, Carluci is focusing on theological education, preaching, and networking/mobilization for missions, particularly amongst the Latin American diaspora in Canada. For the next 8 weeks, he'll be teaching a course on the history of Christianity, with a focus on Latin America at the IFM (Instituto de Formacion Ministerial, Toronto). In October, he'll be working with pastors/leaders in the GTA and then in Montreal spearheading a process of training in expository preaching. I praise God for these opportunities.

26

Xerggyo & Hil. Friends in Chiapas are building a small furlough home in the hills near Hilary’s parents. They meet with many regularly. Political unrest continues in some areas.

27

Jim Mason, SIM, Ghana. “The cinema crew in partnership with The Apostolic Church, Ghana had a cinema outreach at Dansoman “Karikari” park in Accra last August with 120 people in attendance.

About 70 adults and children responded to the altar call to accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. There were 18 re-dedications made up of some church members and backslidden drug addicts in the community. Praise the Lord! Pray for the church to do effective follow up.”

28

Eleanor Crabtree. “I'm planning to lead a Bible Study on Colossians. Pray that God would prompt residents to join. We are in COVID outbreak again. Praise God I'm negative so far.” Diane Dadian. Praise! Diane's daughter Kathleen is now able to sit up and to stand, and this is beyond doctors' expectations.

29

KWM leadership. As always, lift up Pastor Nestor, Jeff Bloom and the whole KWM committee as they continue to seek prayer support for all these ministries, and God's guidance in aligning budgets with increasing needs and opportunities.

SUNDAY

Scott & Beth Hurd. They have taken up the OMF Canada National Director responsibilities as of August 1st. As we emerge from the pandemic, this will likely open new opportunities for engagement with the Canadian Church with respect to missions. One of my special passions is to see professionals explore how they might use their experience and skills more directly for kingdom purposes.

31

Phase II Workers. John & Deborah Bowen, Glenn & Fern Byerly, Elaine Esser, Mary Jane Fandrich, Gladys Linthicum, Norine Love, Patsy McCarthy, Clarence & Cathy McMullen, David & Angela Morris, Barbara Rahn (asks homemakers to pray for her. Her sister will be visiting), Pamela Stedman, Diana Wadsworth, and Rosemary Walker.
